LAW TRANSLATED.

An interesting indication of the community of ideas which happily exists between English and American Universities is given in a book just issued by Messrs King and Son. The University of Columbia has for a number of years been bringing out a series of special studies, now well-known in this country and in Europe, on History, Economics, and Public Law. Amongst the latest of these publications, and most suggestive of the close relation in which England and the United States stand to each other through the English Common Law, is that by Dr Charles Beard, on 'The Office of Justice in the Peace in England.' In his preface the author states that his book is in part the result of work begun under the direction of the late Professor F. York Powell.

He is, therefore, what Sir Frederick Pollock has described as one of those "brethren from the West" who come to visit our ancient seats of learning in the name of our common tongue and common doctrine, and who should be welcomed by our seats of learning with a 'Benedictus qui venit in nomine domini Angliæ.' The Office of Justice of the Peace, the development of which is traced by Dr Beard, is one of the most original and peculiar of our domestic institutions.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

In spite of official assurance that the rumour of Lord Milner's impending resignation is unfounded, there are reasons to believe that the report is certainly true that he will resign at Christmas. His health has broken down under the stress of the last five years. Though he is still on the bright side of fifty he has put in ten times the work and energy of many a Colonial Governor who retires reluctantly at sixty or so from an ornamental and highly paid post. Two years ago he declined a seat in the Cabinet in order that he might see his task through in the settlement of South Africa on the terms of the Vereeniging surrender, and has performed it magnificently.
He may be allowed to retire honourably now, the more readily that we have so excellent a successor as Sir Arthur Lawley at hand, a man trained under Milner with more of the saving grace of youth, and as much tact, ability and personal devotion to the same ideals.
Besides, the Empire still needs such men as Milner, and only a period of rest will save him to us. He has already laid the lines of future policy so truly that there should be little difficulty for Sir A. Lawley, or whoever may be appointed, in following them.

Motors are at home a much more abused feature of the road, cars, and motorists are beginning to retort that the horse-drawn vehicle is nearly as dangerous.
Slow moving carts do not carry lights and a wagon of timber has cruelly avenged the motor hater by nearly killing the King's brother. The long road from Waterloo Place, Edinburgh, through Pirbright to Portobello, should be an ideal one for motors, as it is well kept and nearly level, and almost unimpeded save by the innocent railway (innocent of horsepower, innocent of speed), or cable cars. One of these screened an advancing wagon, and the Duke of Connaught's motor passed the car, and came to grief on the wagon.
The Duke is reported to be in no danger, but the left ear is so crushed that H.R.H. will carry the mark of the accident permanently. After this new regulations to prevent such disasters will be needed. And regulations of such a character are not only necessary at home. Judging from complaints in the Shanghai papers, they are badly wanted there. It seems that the 'devil-fish' runs riot amongst the traffic, and threatens to kill outright all those who are not frightened to death.
When the Mayor or some potentate gets his ear mangled after the style of the Duke of Connaught then something will be done. It is strange how callous Aldermen or Government officials are until one of their number is hurt.

INFLUENZA is always now or less prevalent at this season of the year.
This disease is very similar to a severe cold if allowed to take its course is liable to cause serious results. The best treatment for influenza is to avoid exposure and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This medicine gives immediate relief and if used as directed will ward off all dangerous consequences. It is sold by all Dealers. Written and Co., Ltd., General Agents.

This morning's cricket victory was marked by the extraordinary brilliant batting made by the Straits team. From a weak position they steadily increased the score until, when the innings closed, Hongkong were over two hundred runs in the rear. Rees and Barrett carried the total along to the extent of 53 runs before Rees was out, and Wyatt and Barrett together put on another 45. Of that number Barrett made 25. After the latter's departure Wyatt scored merrily and remained at the wickets while 123 runs were scored, of which his quota was 74. His batting was dashing and stirring, but he gave several chances. Even though his innings was not faultless, it was a bright display and relieved the dull play of the remainder of the team.
Barrett's 53 was the outcome of steady, though vigorous, batting, and it is on a par with this batsman's former exhibitions. Rees and Whitley played similar cricket and Rees' runs were made at a critical juncture. The bowling of Dixon was superb. Out of 58 overs he bowled he contributed 36, only being given a rest once, and that for only six overs. He bowled six maidens and took six wickets at an average cost of 13 runs each. Lumsden bowled consistently and finished with an average of 22, but both Pearce and R.
Hancock were punished severely. The fielding on the whole was good, but two or three difficult chances were missed. A catch by R. Hancock in the slips was a fine one. The position when Hongkong went in to bat was somewhat favourable to the Straits.

The local team required 206 runs to win. Hongkong supporters were sanguine that they would be up to it. They calculated that if the Straits could make over 200, the local men could do a great deal better. But they were doomed to disappointment. The Home team made a miserable showing with the bat and all went down for 110, thus losing the match by 95 runs. The success of the Straits is mainly due to the excellent bowling and fielding of the side. Rees in the second innings of Hongkong was almost unplayable. He bowled throughout and continually had the opposing batsmen beaten, the only one to make a stand against him being Dixon, who scored 25 by good cricket, although being out of a couple of times. Pearce played an excellent game, but was beaten by Rees, who made a splendid low catch. Lumsden made his best showing in the match but that was not very much. He has been a disappointment. It is a somewhat strange thing that with such a small ground as the Hongkong ground no individual batsman has scored a century during the Interport contest. Two scores over 80 have been made, and they are the highest. That such is the case is a tribute to the good bowling shown by all teams, and also to the fielding.
The Straits team has two wins to its credit, Hongkong has one, while Shanghai has been beaten twice. The Straits, therefore, hold the championship for the next year. It has been won without any of that commodity called 'luck', and we congratulate the winners. The best team won.

This morning we were telephoned to asking us to have the CHINA MAIL delivered at a certain place earlier. We would like to remind those who complain that we cannot have a full report of the cricket match—which closes at 5 o'clock—in our paper and have it ready for delivery at the same hour. Type-setting takes time. We notice that regular subscribers realize this and kindly put up with the unavoidable lateness. The growls generally come from those who will not subscribe to the paper, but who hang about the hotels or Club, waiting to read it for no thing, in preference to paying 10 cents for an early copy that can be obtained in the street. Britishers always proudly boast that they support local British industries. A large number do and say nothing about it. There are many, in the other hand, who do not, but have much to say.
It puts us in mind of a story Mark Twain tells. Once he was given a free ticket for a theatre. Whilst the entertainment was in progress the manager said: "Well, what do you think of it?" "Wait," answered Mark, "until I go out and buy a ticket, and I will tell you." There are many in Hongkong not like that. The severest criticism that we hear of local journalism invariably comes from those who never purchase a paper.
If papers here and elsewhere in the East were supported as they should be, those who endeavour to cater to the public want would be able to supply better cable and news services. Let those who growl so consistently and say nothing about it order of their press. They will know what a change they will know at least that they are doing their little bit for the country.

It looks as if His Lordship, Sir Henry Berkeley, is qualifying for a master's certificate. "Let go the anchor," he commanded, in the Supreme Court yesterday, in a sonorous voice. Instinctively the witness addressed sprang to attention and went through the evolutions connected with that operation, as if at sea.

Some people take great delight in writing libels. We have just received a pamphlet, published in the Colony, making allegations against certain residents. The writer asks us to republish it in our columns in review
it. We would like to remind the writer that if he wishes to charge persons with misappropriating $24,000, he can do so in the Courts. He cannot do so in the CHINA
MAIL.

A dress rehearsal of "Dorothy" was given last night by the A. D. O., at the City Hall. The performance was witnessed by a large number of visitors.

H.M.S. Orestes will await at Singapore the return of the Glory from Peking. It is uncertain whether she will accompany the flagship to Hongkong or remain in Singapore to meet H.M.S. Hogue, her relief.

We have been requested to state that for the convenience of those visitors who are unable to go to H.M.S. "Tamar" to call on Mrs. Dicken, a box for cards has been placed at the main entrance to the Naval Yard.

Taipei Shen Tun ho has been presented with the Cross of an Officer of the French Legion of Honour. Will the cross be too heavy for Shen?

The Hongkong leader Fung Ling to is again reported to be troubling the Russians, and his claims to have at different times killed quite 100. He is still 'not out.'

The Viceroy of Liang-Kwang opposes Sir R. Hart's Land Tax scheme of the ground that it does not harmonize with Chinese ancient customs. He probably has 'squeezing' in his mind.

Two of Hongkong's most eminent present, engaged in the collision case at present occupying the attention of the Supreme Court, stood facing each other at the solicitors' table yesterday arranging some details.
'What a snapshot,' murmured the Chief Justice.

Mr Seth presented Sir Henry Berkeley with a pair of white gloves at the Supreme Court to-day 'in token of the spotless innocence of the people.' A man is never a rogue until he has been found out. Can the police show a clean list? That is the only way to test the 'spotless innocence.'

Patience is a virtue. If Purky, who writes us a letter which we must refuse to publish, will wait until the 20th day he will probably see a change. The Government is 'doing something,' and after the date mentioned it will probably be done. The 'horrible depravity' will then be set up or down the coast.

It looks as if His Lordship, Sir Henry
Berkeley, is qualifying for a master's certi-
ed, in the Supreme Court yesterday, in a
operation, as if at sea.

libels. We have just received a pamphlet,
published in the Colony, making allegations
us to republish it in our columns in review
it. We would like to remind the writer
MAIL.

LOCAL AND COAST NEWS.

given last night by the A. D. O., at the
by a large number of visitors.

gapore to meet H.M.S. Hogue, her relief.

are unable to go to H.M.S. "Tamar" to
been placed at the main entrance to the Naval Yard.

The Board of Education has reported favourably to the Viceroy at Tientsin on Mr Wang Chin-Shao's proposed alphabet for the mandarin tongue.

Some anxiety has been caused in the north by the news that the Chinese Board of Astronomy has decided to have two eighth moons next year.

It is stated in Tientsin that the Peking Government has decided to cancel the Han-kon-Canton railway concession, in consequence of the Americans having virtually sold it to the Belgians.

The second practice dance for St Andrew's Ball took place, at the City Hall, Articles. The Treaty is to run for the high contracting parties desire it, at giving a six months' notice in advance it on Customs' duties, or any other question which may arise after due trial give dissatisfaction to either party. If after the period of ten years no notice be given by either party to determine the Treaty it shall continue for another ten years.

The Circus.

Harmon's Circus continues to attract large numbers of people to their tents at Causeway Bay, last night's performance being witnessed by a numerous, and enthusiastic audience. Little Jennie Harmon, Love's again earned great applause for her clever cake walking, and her sister Nellie's acts of equitation were equally popular. Dummy Banvard's burlesque caused roars of laughter, and Wyndham and Kitty, who are really clever performers, accomplished some remarkable feats on the wire, where they seem to be quite at home.
Numerous other performers also contributed to make the evening a success, and the horses and other animals were universally admired. A matinee will be held to-morrow afternoon; on Tuesday night the business will be presented to the successful cricketers; and on Friday night the first high jumping competition for ponies of 142 hands and under will be held. A hand-to practice in the tent between 6 and 8 girls is to be enlarged by cages of lions the management have decided to throw it open daily from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at a cost of admission of 20 cents, on and after Sunday next.

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the cough begins, it will prevent the attack.
It is a sad fact that many thousands of homes in this broad land have never been dispensaries. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effective. No other preparation can show such a record—over thirty years of continuous use without a single failure. For sale by one of his fellow constables' trousers and also of having pawned part of his uniform, the property of the Government. He was fined $1 and sentenced to three weeks' imprisonment, and having been already in-gao for three weeks, on remand, was allowed to go at liberty.

Not up to Expectations.

A writer in the Shanghai Mercury writes:—Our boys in Hongkong have made a good average start. With ordinary luck they are worth from 207 to 250 runs in every innings on the Hongkong ground. It is too much to expect every one to 'come off' every time but the number mentioned above is not an unfair estimate of the general capacity of our team. So far things are very even.

A Gambling Raid.

A gambling raid was successfully carried out at Des Vaux Road West, last evening. The place was suspected by the police to be an agency for the Canton lottery and a number of tickets etc., were secured and about $70 in money. Six men were captured and brought up at the Magistracy this morning, charged with being the keepers of a common gambling house. They were remanded until Wednesday next, bail of $1000 each being allowed.

'Irish Wit.'

At the Union Church Literary Club yesterday the Hon. F. H. May, C.M.G., delivered an interesting lecture on 'Irish Wit,' a subject on which Mr May proved himself to be a capable exponent. A number of ladies were present. The attendance was satisfactory. The lecture abounded with amusing anecdotes, and Mr May kept his audience in a simmer of laughter throughout which occasionally burst forth into hearty roars. Perhaps the best example of 'Irish Wit' was a remark made by the lecturer that 'one of the sights of Killarney is an echo.' Needless to remark the 'bull' was noticed and greeted with applause.

Cows Burnt.

A fire occurred in the vicinity of Old Kowloon City yesterday afternoon, resulting in considerable loss of property. The outbreak originated shortly after 2 o'clock at Tang Tan, not far from the city wall, and the whole of the structure was soon in flames. The place was the property of a Chinese dairy and a number of cattle were housed in it. The men who were to charge quickly made their escape but some of the cattle were unable to get loose, and two cows and a calf were burnt to death in their stalls. Another cow was also severely burnt about the head in making her escape, and had subsequently to be shot. The fire practically burnt itself out before the villagers were able to do anything towards extinguishing it. The damage is estimated at about $

SLEEPLESS SUMMER NIGHTS.

A WOMAN'S SHATTERED HEALTH WOULD NOT LET HER SLEEP, BUT DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE CURED HER.

"TEN years ago," said Mrs. Roper, of 8, Geo's-house, Cambois, near Blyth, England, "I had a severe attack of influenza, and from then till quite recently suffered from the after-effects. Sometimes I got better for a day or two, but I soon became worse again. The neighbours all regarded me as doomed."

"I saw a doctor, and took a great deal of his medicine, and was also treated by two other doctors. But I got miserably thin, could take little or no food, and was unable to sleep at night. When I did force myself to take food my stomach was too weak to retain it. This went on for years, and six months ago I felt that I had to give up housework altogether and get a girl in to do it for me. I could not walk to the foot of the garden. Every few steps I had to stop to get my breath."

Mrs. Roper's case is only too common. Ruined digestion had shattered her nerves and starved her veins of blood. We see here all the signs of anemia, and (as her story proceeds) we shall also see that as her blood-supply was built up she began to grow better.

"At last," Mrs. Roper continued, "I had to take to my bed. I was in despair, and never expected to rise again. While in bed I said to myself, 'I wonder if Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People would do me any good. Some people seem to think well of them.' At any rate, I determined to try."

"Although Mrs. Roper apparently did not know the real cause of her trouble, she had hit upon the right remedy. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills made new blood; that is the secret of their cure. Observe how quickly the effect was noticed—

"I had been in bed three weeks then," said Mrs. Roper. "But I am telling you the barest truth when I say that I felt a change for the better after a couple of doses of the pills. On the second day I got out of bed, and I can assure you I astonished the neighbours. The improvement was steady and rapid. I took the pills three times a day for a month, and then I dropped the dose to a dose in the morning and at tea-time. It is over ten years since I felt so well as I do now. I have sent the girl away and do all my own work now. I attribute my really wonderful cure entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

"Yes," remarked her husband, who came into this at that moment, "they have done wonders for her and for me, too. Three years ago I had a bad attack of lumbago in the back. I took the pills after my wife's experience, and now I am as right as can be."

In both cases the cure was the same. The new blood did it. That is the secret of the thousands of cures effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Whatever diseases arise from too little blood, or blood that lacks richness and purity, they can cure just as surely as food cures hunger. Blood is the food of the body. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the food of the blood. The genuine pills always bear Dr. Williams' name, and substitutes are useless and fraudulent. Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Holborn Viaduct, London, will send a bottle post free for 2s. 6d. to any address. It is by making new blood, by curing anemia, bile, consumption, indigestion, St. Vitus' dance, it is by making pure blood that they cure rheumatism, kidney disease, eczema, and all skin troubles. They improve the appetite almost from the first dose, and they give strength to everyone, especially to women, who know why they need new blood more often than their husbands and brothers.
